2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. ## DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The reply filed on 01/17/2007 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because of the following omission(s) or matter(s): applicant has amended the application to contain only claims drawn to species II, a panel with a first and second fascia, which is a non-elected species. See 37 CFR 1.111. Since the above-mentioned reply appears to be bona fide, applicant is given ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS from the mailing date of this notice, whichever is longer, within which to supply the omission or correction in order to avoid abandonment. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a).

This is the last bona fide notice applicant will receive. All further non-responsive/non-compliant amendments will not be considered a bona fide attempt and will be treated accordingly, and will not be eligible an extension of time.

Election/Restrictions

Applicant continues to provide arguments regarding the restriction requirement. Examiner again notes that the election in the reply filed on 05/30/2006 was an election without traverse as noted in the previous correspondence and included herewith. Further examiner notes in the remarks filed 09/14/2006, applicant again states that the election was made without traverse. Accordingly applicant has not reserved the right to traverse the restriction, and all arguments regarding the restriction requirement are moot.

Additionally the examiner would point out that the traversal arguments filed on 03/09/2006 are a traversal of an election/restriction requirement that has been withdrawn and therefore the traversal is moot as being directed to a withdrawn election/restriction. Any subsequent restriction requirements are to be considered on their own merits as a new requirement and treated accordingly. Further applicant cannot at this traverse any future restriction requirements as only the current and pending actions may be considered on the merits and applicant cannot presuppose an action from the examiner, particularly with remarks to a moot action.
